Photo Usage Terms – Fitz Focal

We're thrilled to create media that helps your brand shine! To keep things smooth and professional, here's a simple outline of how your photos can be used:

1. Your Marketing Use You're free to use the photos for all of your own marketing needs—online listings, social media, website, print materials, and anywhere else that promotes your business.
2. Third-Party Requests If someone else (like a contractor, designer, publication, or another company) wants to use the photos, we kindly ask that you direct them to Fitz Focal. That way, we can properly distribute the files and ensure usage rights are clear for everyone involved.
3. Why This Matters This helps maintain image quality, branding consistency, and proper credit when needed. It also protects everyone's interests, including yours.
4. Collaboration First We're easy to work with, and happy to accommodate requests—just loop us in when someone else needs access to the content.

Thanks for respecting the creative process and helping us maintain high standards across the board!
